

HISTORICAL EVENING IS HELD AT EMPORIA

Lee and Jackson Day Observed by Daughters of the Confederacy.

MEETING OF MOTHERS' CLUB

Churches Decide to Hold Union Lenten Services—Miss Bettie Lee Entertains Friends at Dinner Party at Her Home.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
EMPORIA, VA., January 27.—The annual historical evening, in observance of Lee and Jackson Day, was held at the home of Mrs. E. M. Tredway on Friday by the Greenville Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. Tredway, in a quaint costume of the sixties, received the guests, assisted by the president of the chapter, Miss Mary Turner. Confederate flags and colors were displayed. The favors were $10 Confederate notes. War-time songs were sung and readings were given by Mrs. E. M. Parker, Mrs. H. L. Taylor, Mrs. W. T. Tillar, Mrs. E. E. Goodwyn, Mrs. F. L. Palmer and Mrs. J. T. Stallings. Other guests present were Mrs. W. B. Goodwyn, Mrs. R. J. Green, Mrs. W. W. Green, Mrs. R. G. Dixon, Mrs. M. H. Tredway, Mrs. A. G. Slate, Mrs. Alice Hudson, Mrs. Susie Powell, Mrs. E. B. Bruns, Mrs. Misses Sallie Bailey, Mary Turner, Ella Manning, Laura Briggs, Katie Tunstall, William and Rosa Tredway.

"What Other Mothers' Clubs Are Doing," was the subject at a recent meeting of the Mothers' Club, held in the school building. Mrs. W. T. Tillar, president, presided. The principal, R. L. Sweeney, urged the mothers to come closer to the school and a school-visiting committee was appointed. The club will entertain the teachers' conference of the Fourth Congressional District, which will be held in Emporia March 16, 17 and 18. About 200 guests are expected.

As a result of a conference of the ministers and two laymen from every church held on Tuesday evening, it was decided that all the churches this year will unite in the Lenten service.

A dinner party was given by Miss Bettie Lee on Tuesday evening at her home. Covers were laid for twelve. Five hundred was played after the dinner. Those present were Mrs. Charles G. Burr, Mrs. N. O. Roszel, Miss Susie Powell and Miss Ida Cato, and C. S. Liveray, R. W. Wythe, Jr., E. E. Fane, W. L. Lindsay, J. M. Jordan, N. W. Robinson and J. S. Wren.
